

1) Choose the correct gerund or infinitive form for each gap below.

1. He told me _____ for him.
A. wait
B. to wait
C. waiting
2. You promised _____ to the concert.
A. let me go
B. to let me go
C. to let me going
3. I'd prefer _____ a cup of tea, thanks. I don't like coffee.
A. have
B. to have
C. having
4. We spent the whole morning _____ the house.
A. clean
B. to clean
C. cleaning
5. We are not allowed _____ Japanese in class.
A. speak
B. to speak
C. speaking
6. You must remind me _____ Suzan this afternoon.
A. call
B. to call
C. calling
7. I'm planning _____ here until Wednesday.
A. stay
B. to stay
C. staying
8. He offered _____ me with my maths.
A. help
B. to help
C. helping
9. They make us _____ this ridiculous uniform.
A. wear
B. to wear
C. wearing
10. He seems _____ a good listener.
A. be
B. to be
C. being

2) Fill in the gaps with the verbs in brackets in the correct gerund or infinitive form.

1. It isn't so easy (get) a good result.
2. Would you mind (turn) the TV down, please?
3. He managed (escape) by breaking the window.
4. I remember (cross) this door for the first time. I was so nervous!
5. I must remember (send) him a copy of the document.
6. I tried (stay) awake to see the final, but I was too tired.
7. A: I would like my boss to like me. B: Why don't you try (arrive) at work on time?
8. What do you want me (do) with the boxes?
9. She is a workaholic, she can't stop (work).
10. I was running really fast but I had to stop (tie) my shoe.

3) Fill in the gaps with the verbs in brackets in the correct gerund or infinitive form.

1. She's going to be upset. I forgot (call) her.
2. I'll never forget (kiss) my wife for the first time.
3. I'd love (have) a chat with you.
4. I recommend (read) carefully the instructions before (do) anything.
5. I think she is avoiding (talk) to me.
6. Do you feel like (go) to the theater?
7. When I finish (prepare) the food, I'll set the table.
8. We can't afford (go) on holiday this year.
9. I suggest (visit) the temple very early in the morning.
10. Do you know how (fix) the screen?